The Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame were this Day preſented to the Lord Lieutenant for Tranſmiſſion; and alſo Addreſſes from both Houſes to his Excellency, which, with his Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To his Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to offer your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne.

We feel the utmoſt Concern and Indignation that the Happineſs and Tranquillity of this Kingdom ſhould be interrupted by various Attempts to excite a Spirit of Diſcontent and Diſturbance, and that Appearances ſhould have manifeſted themſelves to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

We lament that Views of Conqueſt and Dominion ſhould have incited France to interfere with the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Meaſures, with regard to His Majeſty's Allies the States General, neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties.

Under theſe Circumſtances, we highly approve of your Excellency, by His Majeſty's Command, having ordered an Augmentation of the Army upon the Eſtabliſhment.

We alſo approve of the Meaſures which, by the Advice of the Privy Council, have been taken to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions and Naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition, and we ſhall chearfully apply ourſelves to give them a Parliamentary Sanction.

We are thoroughly perſuaded of the Satisfaction it will afford to His Majeſty, if, by a temperate and firm Conduct, the Bleſſings of Peace can be continued: But we intreat your Excellency to aſſure His Majeſty of our zealous Concurrence in His Determination to provide for the Security and Intereſts of His Dominions, and to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements to which He is equally bound by the Honor of His Crown, and the general Intereſts of the Empire.

We will direct our Attention to the Encouragement of the Agriculture, the Manufactures and eſpecially the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, and we will not fail in our accuſtomed Care of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Public Inſtitutions.

We will adopt ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt adviſeable for the Maintenance of internal Tranquillity; and for this Purpoſe we will uſe our beſt Endeavours to render the Laws effectual for eſtabliſhing a Militia in this Kingdom.

We

[Price Eight-pence.]

We feel with Pride the Confidence which His Majeſty is pleaſed to repoſe in us, and will, on all Occaſions, ſhew our firm Determination to inforce due Obedience to the Laws and to maintain the Authority of Government, in which we are aſſured of His Majeſty's cordial Co-operation and Support; your Excellency's Recommendation, by His Majeſty's Command, will induce us ſedulouſly to apply ourſelves to the Conſideration of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment among all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of His Majeſty's Subjects, in Support of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution. We are thankful to His Majeſty for the Confidence He repoſes in our Wiſdom and Liberality; we will apply our ſerious Attention to the Situation of His Majeſty's Roman Catholic Subjects, and His Majeſty may rely that we ſhall give a full Conſideration to this important Buſineſs.

We are thoroughly ſenſible of His Majeſty's Goodneſs in continuing the Adminiſtration of your Excellency, upon whoſe Integrity and Honor we have the greateſt Reliance; and we have an entire Confidence in your Excellency's ſincere Exertion for the Preſervation of our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State.

W. Watts Gayer,
Edward Gayer, } Cler. Parliamentor.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Requeſt you to accept my cordial Thanks for this obliging Addreſs. It is my ſincere Duty and Inclination to preſerve your Confidence and Support, by a conſtant Endeavour to promote the Proſperity of Ireland.

To His Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland;

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, return your Excellency our cordial Thanks for your excellent Speech this Day from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament.

We have ſeen with real Concern the Attempts which have been made to excite a Spirit of Diſcontent and Diſturbance among His Majeſty's Subjects in a Part of the Kingdom, and which has manifeſted a Tendency to effect by Violence an Alteration in the Conſtitution.

We alſo ſincerely lament that a Deſire of Conqueſt and Dominion ſhould have induced France to interfere in the Government of other Countries, and to adopt Meaſures with regard to His Majeſty's Allies the States General, which are neither conformable to the Law of Nations, nor the poſitive Stipulations of exiſting Treaties, eſpecially when the Conduct of His Majeſty and the States General had been guided by the ſtricteſt Neutrality.

Under theſe Circumſtances, we fully concur in the Expediency of augmenting the Forces upon this Eſtabliſhment.

The Meaſures alſo which have been taken by your Excellency, with the Advice of the Privy Council, to prevent the Exportation of Corn, Proviſions, and Naval Stores, Arms and Ammunition, will receive our Support, and we ſhall readily ſanction any temporary Infringement of the Laws, which was rendered neceſſary by the Urgency of the Times.

We ſhall truly participate in thoſe Feelings of Satisfaction which muſt fill the Royal Mind, if the Bleſſings of Peace may be preſerved by that firm and ſeparate Conduct which His Majeſty has determined to preſerve; and as we are jealous of the Honor of His Crown and tranſide of the general Intereſts of the Empire, His Majeſty may be aſſured of our Zeal in ſupporting His Determination to fulfil thoſe poſitive Engagements by which He is bound to His Allies, and to maintain the Security and Intereſt of His Dominions.

We thank your Excellency for ordering the National Accounts to be laid before us, and we ſhall chearfully make ſuch Proviſions for the Public Service and the Honor and Security of His Majeſty's Crown and Government as the Exigencies of the Times may require.

We return our Acknowledgments to your Excellency for directing our Attention to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture of this Kingdom, as well as to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Public Inſtitutions, which have uſually received the Bounty of Parliament. Theſe Objects of National Utility will not fail to engage our accuſtomed Regard and Liberality.

We ſhall immediately point our Endeavours to deviſe ſuch Meaſures as ſhall appear moſt conducive to the Preſervation of internal Tranquillity; and, with this View, we ſhall particularly apply ourſelves to reviſe the Proviſion of the Act for eſtabliſhing a Militia.

We cannot too gratefully expreſs our Acknowledgments to His Majeſty for his Confidence in our Determination to uphold the Authority of Government, and enforce due Submiſſion to the Laws; but particularly for His gracious Declaration to cooperate with our Exertions and cordially to ſupport them; and we ſhall readily conſider of ſuch Meaſures as may be moſt likely to ſtrengthen and cement a general Union of Sentiment amongſt all Claſſes and Deſcriptions of His Majeſty's Subjects in Support of the eſtabliſhed Conſtitution.

We are ſenſible of His Majeſty's Goodneſs in relying upon our Wiſdom and Liberality; and we ſhall obey His Majeſty's Commands in giving a full Conſideration to the Situation of our Roman Catholic Brethren.

We are happy in this Opportunity of repeating our Satisfaction, that His Majeſty has continued your Excellency in the Government of Ireland; and, perſuaded that your Excellency will exert yourſelf to maintain our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, which we feel to be the beſt Security for Civil Liberty and general Proſperity, we ſhall be ever zealous to promote the Eaſe and Happineſs of your Adminiſtration.

Robert Thorston, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Return you my ſincere Thanks for this Addreſs, and will endeavour to merit a Continuance of your good Opinion, by a ſteady Purſuit of thoſe Objects which will beſt tend to ſecure and promote the general Happineſs of Ireland.
